

Jonathan Holling Clinic Sponsored by IEA

Stadium/Cross-Country (Weather Permitting)

Aug. 21-22 at Hoosier Horse Park

Jonathan Holling is an accomplished international three day event competitor. Jonathan first competed at the Rolex Kentucky Three Day Event in 1998, and has been a top international rider for the United States ever since. Since this first experience at the top level of his sport, Jonathan has competed at numerous three and four star events throughout the United States and Europe. Jonathan has been ranked in the top twenty of the USEA leader board consistently over the past several seasons. Most recently he was 8th at the 2007 Rolex Kentucky CCI****. Jonathan was then placed on the winter training list for the US Olympic team.

As a certified Level 4 instructor with the USEA Instructor Certification program, Jonathan keeps a busy schedule teaching and training on the road and at home. Jonathan and his wife Jennifer run a successful training and sales business in Ocala Florida. This farm is their home base for year round training and preparation for all their top horses.
